The Selection Process

1. The deadline for nominations is May 1st.
2. Any individual or association may submit a nomination with the following exceptions:
 - A current member of the British Columbia Football Hall of Fame committee may not submit a nominee
 - A member of the British Columbia Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors may submit a nomination but if the Trustee submits a nomination, that Trustee may not vote on the nomination if and when it is brought to the Board of Trustees for approval.
 - Each nomination is valid for three consecutive years.
3. The Selection Committees will then meet to review and decide upon the various nominations and make their recommendations to the Board of Directors. The eventual inductees in each category will be available to the media and general public in September annually.
